

NINA HEPBURN

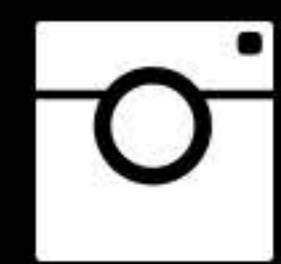

ABOUT

Nina Hepburn is a DJ and producer from Hamburg, Germany and grew up in a musical family, learned to play the violin as a child and gained musical experience in an orchestra.

In later years she discovered her love for electronic music and started djing in 2014. She has a unique approach, favoring soothing textures and intriguing melodies, making for a dark and mysterious soundscape. Nina is all about connecting people on a much deeper level, pushing the boundaries of electronic music and coming up with her own, mesmerizing melodic techno sound.

Nina began her journey with music production in 2018 and is currently working on projects which she will bring into her sets and public very soon.
